NEW ORLEANS, LA.

CHARTER OF THE UNIVERSITY.

Act No. 136 of the Louisiana State Legislature.
Senate Bill No. 78, Introduced by Senator Wm. H. Byrnes.

An Act

To authorize and empower Loyola University, to confer degrees in the Arts and Sciences and all the learned professions, and to give diplomas or certificates thereof; and to fix the status of such degrees and diplomas or certificates

Whereas, due notice of the intention to apply for the passage of this Act has been published as required by Article 50 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, and due evidence thereof has been exhibited in and to the General Assembly:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That "Loyola University," a corporation organized under the laws of this State and domiciled in the City of New Orleans, be and is hereby authorized and empowered to confer upon its students, or upon any person deemed by it worthy of such distinction, degrees in the Arts and Sciences and all the learned professions, such as are granted by other universities in the United States, and to give diplomas or certificates thereof.

Provided, that the curriculum or course of study in the learned professions shall equal that maintained by other standard universities.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That said degrees and diplomas or certificates shall be recognized by the courts and all officials of this State, as entitling the graduates receiving said degrees and holding said diplomas or certificates, to the same rights, immunities and privileges in the State of Louisiana as the graduates of any other university or institution of learning whatsoever.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, etc., That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed.

L. E. THOMAS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
THOMAS C. BARRET,

Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.
L. E. HALL,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

ALVIN E. HEBERT,
Secretary of State.

Approved July 10th, 1912.

SYSTEM OF EDUCATION.

The education system in use at Loyola University (substantially the same employed in two hundred and twenty-seven educational institutions conducted by the Society of Jesus in nearly all parts of the world) is guided by the principles set forth in the Ratio Studiorum,* a body of rules and suggestions outlined by the most prominent Jesuit educators throughout the world for the adequate and balanced training of youth.

Truly psychological in its methods, and based upon the very nature of man's mental processes, it secures on the one hand that stability so essential to educational thoroughness, while on the other it is elastic and makes liberal allowance for the widely varying circumstances of time and place. While retaining, as far as possible, all that is unquestionably valuable in the older learning, it adopts and incorporates the best results of modern progress. It is a noteworthy fact, however, that many of the recently devised methods of teaching, such as the Natural, the Inductive and similar methods, are admittedly and in reality mere revivals of devices recommended long ago in the Ratio Studiorum.

As understood by the Jesuits, education in its complete sense, is the full and harmonious development of all those faculties that are distinctive of man. It is more than mere instruction or the communication of knowledge. The requirement of knowledge, though it necessarily pertains to any recognized system of education, is only a secondary result of education itself. Learning is an instrument of education, which has for its end culture, and mental and moral development.

Consonant with this view of the purpose of education, it is clear that only such means, such as Science, Language and the rest, may be chosen both in kind and amount, as will effectively further the purpose of education itself. A student cannot be forced, within the short period of his school course and with his immature faculties, to study a multiplicity of the languages and sciences into which the vast world of knowledge has been scientifically divided. It is evident, therefore, that the purpose of the mental training given is not proximately to fit the student for some special employment or profession, but to give him such a general, vigorous, and rounded development as will enable him to cope successfully even with the unforeseen emergencies of life. While affording mental stability, it tends to remove the insularity of thought and want of mental elasticity which is one of the most hopeless and disheartening results of specialization on the part of students who have not brought to their studies the uniform mental training given by a systematic preparatory course. The studies, therefore, are so graded and classified as to be adapted to the mental growth of the student and to the scientific unfolding of knowledge. They are so chosen and communicated that the student will gradually and harmoniously reach, as nearly as may be, that measure of culture of which he is capable.

*Those who are desirous of further information on this subject are referred to "Jesuit Education," by Robert Schwickerath, S. J., (Herder, St. Louis, 1903), and to the numerous documents therein cited.

It is fundamental in the Jesuit System that different studies have distinct educational values. Mathematics, the Natural Sciences, Language, and History are complementary instruments of education to which the doctrine of equivalents cannot be applied. The specific training given by one, cannot be supplied by another. The best educators of the present day are beginning to realize more fully than ever before that prescribed curricula, embracing well-chosen and coordinated studies, afford the student a more efficient means of mental cultivation and development. This, however, does not prohibit the offering of more than one of such systematic courses, as for instance, the Classical and the Scientific, in view of the future career of the individual. While recognizing the importance of Mathematics and the Natural Sciences, which unfold the interdependence and laws of the world of time and space, the Jesuit System of education has unwaveringly kept Language in a position of honor, as an instrument of culture. Mathematics and the Natural Sciences bring the student into contact with the material aspects of nature, and exercise the deductive and inductive powers of reason. Language and History effect a higher union. They are manifestations of spirit to spirit, and by their study and for their acquirement the whole mind of man is brought into widest and subtlest play. The acquisition of Language especially calls for delicacy of judgment and fineness of perception, and for a constant, keen, and quick use of the reasoning powers.

Much stress is also laid on mental and moral philosophy, as well for the influence such study has in mental development, as for its power in steadying the judgment of the student in his outlook on the world and on life. Rational Philosophy, as a means of developing young manhood, is an instrument of strength and effectiveness.

But to obtain these results, Philosophy must be such in reality as well as in name. It must not content itself with vague groping after light, with teaching merely the history of philosophy; detailing the vagaries of the human mind without venturing to condemn them; reviewing the contradictory systems which have held sway for a time without any expression of opinion as to the fatal defects which caused them to be discarded. It must do more than this. It must present a logical, unified, complete system of mind-culture in accord with the established laws of human thought; it must take its stand on some definite propositions expressive of truth; it must rise to the dignity of a science. With such a definite system to defend against attack, the mind becomes more acute and plastic, the logical powers are strengthened, the value of a proof is properly estimated, the vulnerable points of error are readily detected, and truth comes forth triumphant from every conflict of mind with mind.

Finally, the Jesuit System does not share the delusion of those who seem to imagine that education, understood as enriching and stimulating the intellectual faculties, has of itself a morally elevating influence in human life. While conceding the effects of education in energizing and refining the student's imagination, taste, understanding, and powers of observation, it has always held that knowledge and intellectual development, of themselves, have no moral efficacy. Religion alone can purify the heart and guide and strengthen the will. This being the case, the Jesuit System aims at developing side by side the moral and intellectual faculties of the student.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS TRAINING.

In its moral and religious training the University aims at forming the conscience of its students for the right fulfilment of their civil, social, and religious duties. There is insistence on the cultivation of the Christian virtues which operate for this fulfilment; and, as the only solid basis of virtue and morality, an intelligent practice of religion is required.

Catholic students must attend lectures on Evidences of Religion, and must be practical and regular in the fulfilment of their religious duties. Students of other faiths are excused from religious lectures, but they are required to abide by the strict principles of the christian code of ethics.

BUILDINGS.

Location.

Loyola University is admirably situated in the garden district of the City of New Orleans, on St. Charles Avenue, opposite Audubon Park. Many street car lines pass close to the University, making it easy of access from all parts of the city.

The whole neighborhood about the University is the choicest residence portion of the city. Students may easily obtain room and board with private families within a few blocks of the Campus. Many families make a special effort to cater to the University Students. The rates are reasonable, while many of the charms of home life with its protection and stimulus to study and gentlemanly behavior, are thus afforded by responsible people who feel a personal interest in the students' health, study, and pleasure.

Architecture.

The buildings of the University group are of the Tudor-Gothic style of architecture, and by their graceful, open outlines and their majestic expanse form one of the most striking pictures of architectural splendor to be seen in the Southland. The buildings are of oriental brick of blended colors, trimmed in grey sandstone or terra-cotta. All of the group buildings are new and strictly fireproof.

LOUISE C. THOMAS HALL. This building is devoted to the Faculty, and to such Associations as work for the growth, development, and wider influence of the whole University. It is the gift of Mrs. Louise C. Thomas, whose generous benefactions have been a stimulus to religious and educational development in New Orleans.

MARQUETTE HALL. This magnificent structure of four floors,

200 x 65 feet, is the main building of the University. It is the home of the College of Arts and Sciences, and serves temporarily the Department of Dentistry and the Law School.

THE McDERMOTT MEMORIAL CHURCH. This is perhaps the most impressive piece of architecture in the city. It stands in its grandeur and solemnity at a most commanding point on the Boulevard, and its massive tower forms the background of the most artistic views to be had from any point in Audubon Park.

The Church is the gift of Miss Kate McDermott in memory of her brother, Thomas McDermott. The interior furnishings and decorations are the gifts of special donors.

The wonderful Calvary scene which forms the Altar, hewn from the purest Carara marble by Italian artists, is the gift of Mr. Lawrence Fabacher, K. of St. G. The other marble altars are gifts of Mrs. E. J. Bobet, Mrs. Wm. P. Burke, Mrs. J. Douglas, and Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Swarbrick and Mrs. Douglas.

The chimes of thirteen bells in the Church Tower, which pour out the sacred and patriotic airs to be heard for miles around, are the gift of Mrs. E. J. Bobet, who also presented the exquisitely carved pulpit recently erected in the chancel.

THE NICHOLAS D. BURKE SEISMOLOGICAL OBSERVATORY is one of the attractive features of the Science Department. The graceful building, in keeping with the general style of architecture, is a pretty memorial to an old alumnus, erected by his family which has been a generous supporter of the University from its beginning. This building contains the Vertical and Horizontal seismographic instruments of the Wiechert astatic type, by which New Orleans receives its first news of earthquakes and disturbances on the surface of the globe. This observatory is one of many controlled by the Jesuit Colleges and Universities in all parts of the world, in the interest of seismological and meteorological science.

NEW CHEMISTRY BUILDING: As the result of the Loyola Building Campaign, funds were obtained to erect the new Chemistry building which is the first unit of the new quadrangle to be formed by the other buildings of the group which Loyola hopes to complete in the near future with the loyal help and generosity of Alumni and friends of higher education.

The new building will be even larger than Marquette Hall, having four full stories, devoted exclusively to chemistry and the allied sciences. In design and material it will be in close keeping with the other buildings of the group.

There will be six student laboratories; each 65 x 45 feet, with working space for 98 men at one time, and arrangements for four shifts or sections, giving a maximum capacity of 392 students in each laboratory. The rest of the building will be devoted to lecture rooms and private, research laboratories. In the center of the building will be a large science amphitheatre with a capacity of 200 seats, which will be used for lecture and demonstration purposes.

The Pharmacy Department will occupy the whole top floor, thus extending its facilities to meet the ever-growing demand.

The Lemann property at the corner of Calhoun St. and St. Charles Ave. has been purchased by the University for the Law Department. It is hoped that in due time a new building will be erected in place of the present residence which serves for the time being as a meeting place for Students' functions.

NEW STADIUM: On the site of the old Loyola campus, a new Stadium will be ready for the opening of the 1923-24 athletic season. This valuable addition to Loyola University consists of a turtle-back foot-ball field, a skinned base-ball diamond, a quarter-mile cinder path for track and field meets, a grand stand with seating capacity of 3500, a gymnasium building 80 x 130, containing a basket-ball court, sweat rooms, shower baths, and offices for the athletic management.

The University is indebted for all these improvements to the Loyola Athletic Council of which Mr. B. S. D'Antoni, one of Loyola's staunch friends and noted benefactors, is president.

Equipment.

The University has spent within the last few years nearly $100,000.00 in increasing its scientific equipment.

Physics. The University is well supplied with all the instruments and materials for a thorough course in college physics, and furnishes to the student abundant facilities for careful laboratory work.

Chemistry. A large stock of glassware and a complete set of ovens, retorts, etc., and many instruments of precision, were procured in anticipation of the new Chemistry building. At present much of this equipment is stored away for lack of space. Next summer the new building will be opened, and every facility for regular and advanced work in Chemistry will be offered.

Bacteriology. The equipment of this laboratory has grown year by year, until now it has every convenience for experimental and research work, as well as for the regular courses. This department also will be moved next year to the specially prepared laboratory in the new Chemistry Building.

AN APPEAL.

The rapid growth of the University in all departments is making more evident each year the absolute need of more buildings for class rooms and laboratories.

By the greatest economy the Jesuit Fathers have saved for the University many thousands of dollars which would have been consumed in overhead expense and in salaries. Besides, the generosity of all the members of our various faculties have made it possible for the University to get the maximum of efficiency with the minimum of expense.

But such savings cannot supply the abundant means necessary for immediate expansion. The University, therefore, must look to its friends and benefactors, and to all those whose bounty is being devoted to the cause of higher education for the generous contributions and large donations which will enable the University to continue its building program and to put aside an endowment to safeguard the efficiency of the means of education and the teaching staff.

The University earnestly begs all those who believe in placing college education within the reach of every American boy and girl, and who consider that education the safest and best which postulates as the foundation of its intellectual development the formation of character through moral and religious education, that they come to the assistance of Loyola University by giving financial as well as moral support.

DONATIONS.

Donors are requested to make their donations, legacies, and bequests in the proper legal form to—

“Loyola University, New Orleans, Louisiana,” which is the legal and corporate title.

One may specify the purpose or use to be made of the gift, and this intention will be scrupulously observed. It is well to state whether the sum is for Building and Equipment or for Endowment as the latter must be invested and only the accruing interest may be used.

STUDENT EXPENSES.

All fees must be paid at the beginning of the school year. The tuition may be paid in two installments, at the beginning of each semester.

At the time of registering, each student must obtain a card admitting him to the classes on his schedule. This card must be signed by the Bursar and the Dean.

Until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the prompt payment of all indebtedness, no card will be issued and the student will not be admitted to regular classes nor be allowed to take any examinations.

It is the duty of each student who applies for registration to come prepared to meet his financial obligations according to these rules. The University is unwilling to make exceptions for any student.

Board and Lodging can be secured in the neighborhood of the College with private families. The cost varies between $35.00 and $40.00 per month. The University does not conduct student dormitories.

Tuition and Fees.

In case a student withdraws from a course or from the University during the first ten days, all fees, except the Matriculation fee, will be refunded. After ten days of instruction, no refund will be made of tuition or fees for the semester in question.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Many bright and ambitious boys of approved moral character are debarred from the opportunity of entering College to prepare for a professional career, because they have not sufficient funds.

The University on the one hand is most anxious to assist each deserving boy in acquiring a higher education; but, on the other, it depends on the small income from tuition fees to keep up the departments. The University, therefore, must look to generous benefactors who, in their charity, wish to help native sons in this most valuable way by supplying funds necessary to care for a boy's tuition.

A Perpetual Scholarship is founded when an endowment of $2000.00 is set aside for this purpose.

A Course Scholarship represents an amount which will cover the tuition of one student during his four years of College. The sum of $400.00 may be deposited or $100.00 may be paid annually.

An Annual Scholarship is provided by the yearly donation of $100.00.

Scholarships cover the tuition fee only. The holder of the scholarship must pay the special fees at the beginning of the year, and he must at all times set an example of good conduct and serious application. The honor will be forfeited by any holder of a scholarship whose grades during a semester are unsatisfactory.

The President and Faculty wish to express their grateful appreciation of the generosity of those who have already founded scholarships, and to urge others to increase this charitable fund for the benefit of the poor, worthy boy.

The following are the scholarships which have been placed at the disposal of the University.

The W. P. Burke Scholarships. (three)

The Rev. A. E. Otis, S. J. Scholarship.

The Rev. A. Biever, S. J. Scholarship.

The La. State Councils of K. C. Scholarships. (seven)

The St. Ignatius Scholarship founded by Miss E. S. Fitch.

The St. Ignatius of Loyola Scholarship.

The Men's Sodality of Jesuits' Church Scholarship.

The Francis Xavier Wegmann Scholarship.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS.

Sodality of the B. V. M.

The purpose of the Sodality is to develop Christian character under the protection of the Mother of Christ, and to train young hearts and minds to works of mercy and charity. No student can be admitted to the Sodality unless he has proven himself to be of exemplary moral character, full of the Christian spirit, and an earnest student.

Debating Club.

Students of Arts and Sciences must participate in weekly exercises in Public Speaking. To further this spirit among the students and to develop special oratorical and dramatic talent, the students have formed the Thespian and Literary Society which conducts debates and dramatic exhibitions.

The Student Council.

Officers of the various classes and departments elected by the students, form a Council for the fostering of true College spirit and the promoting of student activities, whether athletic, social, scholastic, or religious. Only such students are eligible to the position of class officers or members of the student council whose manly, moral character and standard of scholarship make them distinguished among their fellow students.

University Orchestra.

Students of the College of Arts and Sciences are eligible to membership in the University Orchestra, if they have the required ability and training. All who become members are expected to be regular and prompt in attendance at the semi-weekly rehearsals. Opportunities for public performances are offered during the course of the year.

ADMINISTRATION.

The College year begins on September 20, and includes thirty-six weeks, divided into two semesters of eighteen weeks. There is a Christmas Recess of one week and an Easter Recess of four days.

Attendance.

All students must attend regularly the class lectures and laboratory periods for which they have registered. No student is free to absent himself from any class exercise unless for a sufficient reason which should have been previously approved of by the Dean, except in unforeseen emergencies. Registration in any course may be cancelled for irregular attendance.

Students who are absent from more than fifteen per cent of the exercises of any course, will be debarred from the Semester examinations and shall receive a failure grade (F) in said course.

Students must make up the work or tests omitted, even when the absence has been excused. A written statement from the Doctor, parent, or guardian must be presented before any absence will be considered excused. One week is the limit for making up omitted work unless, for particular reasons, the professor should grant an extension of time. The responsibility for making up work or taking omitted tests, rests wholly upon the student. Failure grade will be given where this is neglected.

Tardiness in appearing at class exercises will not be tolerated. The professor may refuse admission to any class after the roll is called. Tardiness of less than ten minutes will count as half an absence; of more than ten minutes, an absence.

Discipline.

The educational system of this University includes, as one of its most important features, the formation of character. It is expected that each student will be so loyal to the spirit and ideals of his Alma Mater that the exercise of proper self-control will come from his own convictions and free determinations. Rules and regulations of the college are meant as a guide and help to foster that gentlemanly conduct which is presupposed in every Loyola student. These rules require regular and punctual attendance at all scheduled exercises, obedience to college customs and regulations, serious application to study, and blameless conduct. A student who shows himself deficient in these essential points will be suspended or dismissed.

Examinations.

Examinations in all subjects are held at the close of each semester. Written tests are given monthly, and quizzes are frequent. The result of the semester examination combined with the grade for the student's class work (each to count one-half) will determine the final or passing grade for the semester.

The Passing grade in the College of Arts and Sciences is 70. The student attaining this grade or above receives credit for the number of semester hours allowed for that portion of the course.

A grade between 60 and 70 is a Condition (C). This condition may be removed by examination. Only one such examination is allowed, and only on the day assigned by the Dean. If the student is successful in the examination, he receives the full credit of semester hours, but the highest average allowed in his permanent record for this subject is 70. If the student fails in the examination, the condition becomes a Failure, and the course must be repeated.

If a student has fallen below 85 per cent in attendance, or has failed to hand in 85 per cent of the written assignments in laboratory or home work, he will be marked with an Incomplete Course (I) or with a Failure (F). The Incomplete Course means that the student has not completed the required hours of lecture or home work on account of sickness or other valid excuse approved by the head of the department and the Dean. The student may be allowed to make up this work and be given an examination for credits. If the attendance is below 75 per cent, such a student will be required to repeat the course.

N. B. No examination can be taken out of the regular examination times unless the student who desires to remove a condition or incomplete course, first obtain a Permit Card from the Dean approving of the examination. This card must be presented to the Professor who will enter the examination grade, the date and his signature; and return the card to the Registrar's office to be entered on the permanent record. A charge of $2.00 is made for each semester examination; of $1.00 for each special monthly test; and these charges must be paid when the Permit Card is issued.

GRADES FOR SCHOLARSHIP.

The grades of the student are regularly given in numbers on a percentile scale. When, however, for general grading purposes or as a report of a student's work, letters are used, these letters will have the following meaning.

Above Passing.	Below Passing.
A 93-100 Excellent	E 60-69 Conditioned
B 85- 92 Good	F 0-59 Failed
C 77- 84 Fair	I..... Incomplete
D 70- 76 Passed	X..... Absent

Credit Points For Quality.

A candidate for a degree must present not only the required quantity of work, but he must attain a certain standard of excellence in his work, especially in his Major field. For this reason the candidate for a Bachelor's degree must present, in addition to the 128 semester hours of credit, 128 credit points for quality of work, or an average mark in all subjects of C or better.

Credit points are earned in the following manner: for the grade of A in a given course, the student receives three times as many credit points as semester hours credit allowed for that course; for a grade of B, twice as many credit points as semester hours; for the grade of C, just as many credit points as semester hours. For the grade of D, semester hours are allowed, but no quality credit.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS.

A Freshman must have 25 credits and 25 points before he may become a Sophomore; a Sophomore must have 58 credits and 58 points before he may become a Junior; a Junior must have 88 credits and 88 points before he may become a Senior.

No student will be considered a candidate for graduation who has any deficiency at the beginning of the second semester of his Senior year.

ADMISSION.

Testimonials and Credentials.

Testimonials. All applicants for admission to the College must present satisfactory testimonials of good moral character.

Credentials. The College of Arts and Sciences requires for admission the satisfactory completion of a four year course in a secondary school approved by a recognized accrediting agency, or the equivalent of such a course. The major portion of the secondary school course presented by a student for admission should be definitely correlated with the curriculum to which he seeks admission.

All candidates for admission must offer fifteen units in acceptable subjects. No student will be admitted except on presentation of an official transcript of credits from the High School last attended. Credentials which are accepted for admission become the property of the University and are kept permanently on file.

Applications for admission, accompanied by proper credentials, should be presented to the Registrar as early as possible before the opening of school. These credentials will be acted upon by the Committee on Admissions, and, if acceptable, the applicant will be given a card permitting him to matriculate and register.

Methods of Admission.

Admission to the College of Arts and Sciences may be obtained by one of the following methods: (1) by certificate or diploma of graduation from an approved High School; (2) by examination.

Admission by Certificate.

Students who are graduates of approved four year High Schools and are recommended by the Principal for their moral character, ability, and application, will be accepted without examination.

Such students must have their credentials on file with the Registrar, which should show 15 units in acceptable subjects in a curriculum that has been arranged to prepare a student for college work in Arts and Sciences.

Should a student have the required 15 units, but be deficient in the preparation required for some subject in the Freshman year, he will be obliged to make up this deficiency by extra work during his first year.

Admission by Examination.

An applicant who is not entitled to enter on certificate, must take examinations in the entire number of units. If he is successful in these test examinations and can present supplementary evidence of preparation equivalent to that furnished by a four-year high school course, he can be admitted. To continue in course he must give satisfactory evidence of fitness during his Freshman year.

Students who have attended a standard high school, but who have failed to make good grades or were disqualified from graduation, will not be admitted to these examinations. Only deserving students whose preparatory course has been irregular, but who have covered the required ground for admission, will be considered.

Entrance examinations will be held Sept. 10-12.

Admission to Advanced Standing.

Matriculated students may secure advanced standing either by examination or by presenting credits from an approved college.

Advanced standing will be granted only by examination, unless credentials are submitted from an approved institution of college standing with courses equivalent to those pursued by the regular students of the University.

Candidates for admission from institutions of collegiate rank of recognized standing may be granted the same standing as at the former institution upon presenting in advance of registration:

1. A certificate of honorable dismissal.
2. An official transcript of courses, the year when taken, semester hours and grades. Such courses must be collegiate, not professional or vocational in character.
3. An official certified statement of the entrance credits, showing the length of each course in weeks, the number of recitations and laboratory exercises each week, the length of periods and the grades attained.
4. A marked copy of the catalogue of the college previously attended, indicating the courses for which credit is desired.

Special Students.

Mature and earnest students, who are either lacking in the required entrance units or who wish to pursue particular studies without reference to graduation, may be admitted with the permission of the Dean to such courses as they seem qualified to take.

Special students should be at least twenty-one years of age. No one may register at the University as a special student for more than two years.

By virtue of his classification, a special student is not eligible for any degree. He may become a candidate for a degree when he has completed the admission requirements of the college in which he is registered.

ENTRANCE PROCEDURE.

N. B. Address all correspondence concerning admission to the University to:

The Registrar, Loyola University, New Orleans, La.

Credentials.

Application forms for admission by certificate, which are to be used in every case, may be had on application to the Registrar. Certificates must be made out and signed by the principal of the High School last attended, and mailed by him directly to the Registrar. All credentials should be mailed at least one month before the opening of school. Compliance with this request will save applicants much inconvenience.

If there is any doubt about meeting the special requirements of this College it is recommended that credentials be sent immediately after graduation from High School so that any deficiencies may be made up by summer work.

No student will be permitted to matriculate until the Committee on Admission has approved the units offered and recommended the student for registration.

MATRICULATION AND REGISTRATION.

1. New students should have their credentials on file in the Registrar's office before the day of Registration. When these credentials have been approved, the student receives a card permitting him to matriculate.

On the day assigned for Registration of new students, each one should present his Permit Card to the Dean of the College and receive his Matriculation Card. He will also receive a Registration and Schedule Card, which he will fill out after consulting one of the Student Advisers.

He should show these cards, when filled out, to the Registrar and receive a charge slip of tuition and other fees to be paid to the Bursar.

After paying these fees to the Bursar, he should present this receipt, and receive his Admit Card to the various courses approved on his schedule.

The Admit Card will be presented to each professor, who will affix his signature after having entered the student's name on the roll call.

All these cards, except the Matriculation Card, the student's schedule card and the receipt for payment of dues, should be promptly returned to the Registrar's office within three days after the opening of classes.

2. Old students obtain a card from the Registrar's office permitting them to register. They then follow the regular steps as indicated above to complete registration.

No student will be considered duly registered unless his cards are signed by the proper officials. Nor will he receive any credit for work for which he is not properly registered.

Changes in Registration.

After the first week changes in registration will be permitted only for good reasons and with permission of the Dean. A charge of $1.00 is made for each change thus made.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS.

Applicants for admission to the College should have completed a full course of study in an approved secondary school. A Unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work.

No unit will be accepted unless the subject has been taught for 36 weeks, 4 or 5 times a week through periods of 45 to 60 minutes. Laboratory periods must be of twice the amount of a lecture period.

Fifteen units are required for entrance. No conditions can be allowed. One, however, who presents fifteen units that are acceptable, but has course deficiencies as regards the preparation necessary for the courses offered, must make up these deficiencies within the first year.

Required Units.

	Arts	Sciences	Pre-Med.

Science	1	1	2

Students who present fifteen acceptable units, but are deficient in the amount of preparation required to correlate efficiently with the college courses, may be allowed to carry not more than two such course deficiencies and these must be removed before the Sophomore year.

Elective Units.

Enough electives must be chosen from this group to complete the fifteen units required. The following table shows the minimum and maximum amount of matriculation credit allowed in each subject.

DEGREES.

The College of Arts and Sciences confers the following degrees:

1. Baccalaureate Degrees.

Bachelor of Arts (A. B.) when the principal sequence is Latin and Philosophy. Not less than 16 semester hours of Latin will be accepted for the A. B. degree.

Bachelor of Science (B. S.) when the principal sequence has been Science and Mathematics.

Bachelor of Philosophy (Ph. B.) when the principal sequence has been in the general cultural subjects of Philosophy, Literature and Education.

The Baccalaureate degrees are conferred only on the following conditions:

1. The completion of the regular four years course or 128 semester hours of college work with at least 128 quality points. At least one year (the Senior year) or not less than 30 semester hours must be earned in residence.

2. The student must offer one Major subject with not less than 18 semester hours of credit, and a related Minor of not less than 12 semester hours of credit. He may choose one other non-restricted Minor for his Junior and Senior year.

3. A written thesis in the field of his Major subject. It must be typewritten, double spaced, on standard eleven-inch paper, and must contain about 5000 words.

4. The payment of all indebtedness, including diploma fee, in advance.

2. Masters' Degrees.

A candidate for the Master's degree must have a Bachelor's degree from a standard College and must devote one year exclusively to resident graduate work. Two years will ordinarily be required, if the candidate's whole time is not devoted to graduate study.

Sixteen semester hours of residence work is required, and a thesis in the Major subject.

This thesis must be typewritten, double spaced, on standard eleven-inch paper, and must contain about 5000 words.

The candidate should have a reading knowledge of one foreign language—other than those studied as major or minor courses.

The candidate must be prepared to pass examinations, written or oral or both, as may be required, in the field of his major or minor subjects.

COMBINED COURSES.

Combined Courses are arranged so that students of special ability and application may enter upon their professional work at the end of the third year in the College of Arts and Sciences, and receive their degrees in Arts or Sciences after the completion of such work in the professional school as will be considered the equivalent of the credit necessary to obtain the desired degree.

No student who has not made a full year of residence with thirty semester hours of credit in the College of Arts and Sciences, will be considered a candidate for a Bachelor's degree.

Arts and Law.

A student who has satisfactorily completed three full years of work (96 semester hours and 96 credit points) and has fulfilled the prescribed courses and the requirements of major and minor sequence may register in the College of Arts and Sciences while pursuing his work in the University Law School.

At the end of the second year of Law, on the advice of the Dean of the Law School, who will send a transcript of the student's record, which must be in every way satisfactory, the candidate may receive the Bachelor of Arts degree on the usual conditions.

Sciences and Medicine.

A student who has satisfactorily completed the Junior year of the Bachelor of Science Course (96 semester hours and 96 credit points) and, besides the prescribed subjects of the pre-medical course, has majored in science, will be eligible for the Bachelor of Science degree on the satisfactory completion of one year in an approved Medical School. A statement of the successful completion of a full year's work, without a condition or failure, accompanied by an official transcript of the work and grades, is required. The student will be eligible for a Bachelor of Science degree under the usual conditions.

Sciences and Dentistry.

A student who has satisfactorily completed three years (96 semester hours and 96 credit points) in the Bachelor of Science Course may enter the School of Dentistry, and on the successful completion of the Senior year of Dentistry may receive the Bachelor of Science degree on fulfillment of the usual conditions.

In all combined courses the student should be registered in the College of Arts and Sciences during the time he is fulfilling the requirements of his Senior year in a professional school.

The lecture course in Evidence or Apologetics is prescribed for all students of the Catholic faith. Students of other faiths are perfectly free to elect in its stead four semester hours in Philosophy, History, or Mathematics, above those prescribed for the subject chosen.

MAJOR AND MINOR.

Every student must arrange his elective work to center around some subject or department. This department is called his Major. For graduation a student must present at least eighteen semester hours for his Major and twelve semester hours in a related subject of the same group for his Minor. He may choose a second Minor of twelve semester hours in an unrestricted subject from any other group. Freshman courses as a rule will not be allowed to count in a Major or Minor.

STUDENT ADVISERS.

Heads of the Departments of the College of Arts and Sciences with the Dean will assist the student in choosing his Major and Minors, and in planning a concentrated course for his Junior and Senior years. Students should consult these Advisers at the time of Registration before the opening of classes, and they should report to them periodically of the progress being made.

GROUP REQUIREMENTS.

Each student will elect his Major in one department of the following groups, and a Minor in another department of the same group closely related to his Major subject, and a second Minor from any other department of the remaining groups.

GROUP I
ENGLISH

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Philosophy must choose their Major subject from Group I or Group II.

Candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree must choose their Major subject from Group III.

The thesis offered as required work for graduation must be in the Major subject. May 1 is the limit for handing in all written reports as required by the professors, and the typewritten thesis.

PRE-MEDICAL COURSE.

For admission to Schools of Medicine two years of College work is required. The candidate should arrange his courses so as to fulfill the requirements of the American Medical Association, and should make sure of having the required entrance credits prescribed by the Medical School to which he intends to go.

The curriculum of this course is equivalent to two years of regular work in the School of Sciences, but the arrangement of subjects brings within the limits of two years the sciences and other requirements found most necessary for successful pursuit of the study of Medicine.

Wherever possible the student is urged to complete his Junior year in the Bachelor of Science course and thus prepare for a B. S. degree in the Combined Course.

COMBINED COURSES.Arts—Law

In accordance with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association, students entering upon Law will be required to present credit for two years' work in a College of Arts. Those contemplating the study of Law are exhorted to arrange their college work in such a manner that they may complete three years of work in the College of Arts, and be eligible for an A. B. degree when they have completed the required 32 semester hours in the first two years of the Law School.

(See Evidences of Religion)

BACTERIOLOGY.

1. General Bacteriology. 5 Sem. Hrs.

A general course of lecture and laboratory work in the study of various forms of bacteria, the isolation of same, and experimental observation of the action of various bacteria on animals.

- *2. General Laboratory Technic. 5 Sem. Hrs.

A course designed especially for special students and for Graduates of Pharmacy in which the student is trained in laboratory technic and in methods of making and reporting tests. Students are given practical experience in laboratory diagnosis.

BIOLOGY.

1. Plant Life. 5 Sem. Hrs.

General principles of Botany, dealing with structure, functions and modifications of plants.

2. Zoology. 5 Sem. Hrs.

Introductory Zoology, treating of the elements of general morphology and physiology. Studies are made of a graded series of invertebrate and vertebrate types, illustrating the complexity of form as correlated with division of function.

3. Comparative Anatomy and Physiology. 5 Sem. Hrs.

An intensive study of type forms, culminating in a detailed study of the mammalian type.

4. General Embryology. 5 Sem. Hrs.

An intensive study of the cell and its division, the germinal cell, maturation, division, fertilization, cleavage; a study of the later development of certain selected forms.

*A special fee is charged for this course.

CHEMISTRY.

1. General Inorganic Chemistry. 5 Sem. Hrs.
Fundamental principles of chemistry; the laws of chemical action, and a description of the metallic and non-metallic elements and their compounds.
2. Continuation of Course 1. 5 Sem. Hrs.
A detailed study of the metallic elements and their salt formations, solution, ionization, precipitation and qualitative analysis.
3. Inorganic quantitative analysis. 5 Sem. Hrs.
Gravimetric and volumetric methods.
5. Organic Chemistry. 5 Sem. Hrs.
A study of the fundamental types of organic compounds, their nomenclature, classification, and reactions.
6. Elementary Biological Chemistry. 5 Sem. Hrs.
A fundamental study of the chemical constituents of the body, and their physiological reactions.

ECONOMICS.

1. Principles of Economics. 3 Sem. Hrs.
The economic principles involved in the production, exchange, distribution and consumption of wealth. Study of textbook supplemented by lectures, discussions, and assigned readings.

HISTORY.

1. Western Europe from the Renaissance to 1815. First Semester. 3 Sem. Hrs.

2. Western Europe Since 1815. Second Semester. 3 Sem. Hrs.

The method of instruction in these and in all other courses is the informal lecture based on assigned texts, supplemented by oral recitations, quizzes, discussions, collateral reading, consultation of sources and a weekly topic. Occasional research work is likewise required; and two papers of approximately five thousand words, one in each semester, are prerequisites for the semi-annual and final examinations.

3. English History to the Death of Elizabeth. First Semester. 3 Sem. Hrs.

4. English History from the Accession of James I. Second semester. 3 Sem. Hrs.

The history of England, especially from 800 A. D. to 1500, being so intimately connected with the incidents, movements and civilization of Mediæval Europe, becomes similar in scope to a general course in Mediæval History. Besides, these courses in English History serve more particularly as a background and starting point for the study of American History.

5. American History to the Reconstruction Period. First semester. 3 Sem. Hrs.

6. American History since the Reconstruction Period. Second semester. 3 Sem. Hrs.

These courses aim to bring into relief the outstanding influences which have shaped the history of the United States from the Colonial Period to our own, stressing for this purpose social, economic, and political topics in the development of the Nation. Course 6, in particular, stresses the conditions and circumstances which led the United States to participate in the Great World War, with the resulting stimulus to a clearer national consciousness of the significance and value of American citizenship.

- 7-8 Special Topics in Mediæval European History. Both semesters. 6 Sem. Hrs.

These Courses deal with events, movements, and institutions of the Middle Ages and are, consequently, a topical study of Mediæval History. Special stress is laid upon all events, movements and institutions which had a direct bearing upon the Church, as, v. g. the origin and development of the Papacy, the influence and Temporal Power of the Popes, the Holy Roman Empire, the Controversies with regard to Investitures, Mediæval Religious Life, the Mendicant Friars and their work, Mediæval Universities, the mediæval concept of Representative Government, the Babylonian Captivity of the Papacy, the Great Schism, the Protestant Revolt of the Sixteenth Century, the Catholic Reaction of Counter-Reformation, Missionary Enterprise in Asia and America, etc. The Middle Ages—its movements, ideals and institutions,—being intimately bound up with the Church, no proper appreciation of these times can be had without a study of the Church which motived them.

LANGUAGES.

Different Systems of Coordinates, Point, Straight line, Conics, Higher Plane Curves.
3. Spherical Trigonometry and Solid Analytic Geometry. 4 Sem. Hrs.
Napier's Rule, Gauss' Formula, L'Huilier's formula, the Astronomical Triangle, Application to nautical and astronomical problems. Loci in space, surfaces of revolution, ruled surfaces.
4. Differential Calculus. 4 Sem. Hrs.
Review of Algebraic notions used in Calculus, Definitions of limits, Derivatives, Differentials, Differentiation of Algebraic and transcendental functions, Successive derivatives, Problems in Maxima and Minima, Curvature, Envelopes, Evolutes, Partial Differentiation, Taylor's and McLaurin's Series, Application to surfaces and twisted curves.
5. Integral Calculus. 4 Sem. Hrs.
Integration of algebraic and transcendental functions, Geometrical, physical and chemical applications, Mechanical Integration, Integration of Infinite Series, Successive Integration, Centre of Mass, Moment of Inertia.—Successive and Partial Integration.
6. Differential Equations. 4 Sem. Hrs.
Solution of homogeneous equations, Singular solutions, Solutions of Equations of second order and second degree, Partial Differential Equation, Solution of Equations of higher degree and order.
7. Theory of Equations. 3 Sem. Hrs.
Descartes' rules, Sturm's theorem, Lagrange's and Newton's methods of solution of equations, Solution of equations by radicals, Cardan's formula, Vandermonde's Principle, Graphical solution of equations, introduction to theory of Groups.
8. Theory of Probability and Statistics. 3 Sem. Hrs.
Determination of the measurement of Probability, Calculation of Probability, The law of error, Physical and geometrical applications, Extension to several dimensions, Laws of Frequency, History of Statistics, The statistical method based on Calculus, Simple and Complex tables. Averages, Principle of increased uniformity of Statistics.

PHILOSOPHY.

1. Logic. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 Classification and use of ideas and terms. Judgments and propositions. The laws of the Syllogism. Inductive and Deductive reasoning.
2. Epistemology. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 This course will embrace a study of the possibility, nature, sources and criteria of certitude. Special attention will be given to the teaching of different schools of philosophy on these subjects, particularly those of Bacon, Hobbes, Locke, Berkeley, Descartes, Kant, Fichte, Schelling, Hegel and Comte.
3. Ontology. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 The notion and transcendental properties of Being. Substance and accidents. Analysis of causes. The causation of the order of nature.
4. Cosmology. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 The mechanical and scholastic theories of the universe; the scientific and philosophical aspects of a mechanical theory are specially emphasized. Dynamic Atomism.
5. Psychology. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 Scientific idea of life. Morphology and Physiology of the cell. The human organism and its functions. Philosophic definition of life. Anatomical and physiological aspect of sensation and movement. Psychological aspect of movement. Origin of life. Theory of Evolution. Rational life. Acts and faculties peculiar to man. The intellect and will. Comparative psychology of animal and man. Origin of man. Immortality of the soul.
6. Theodicy. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 This course treats of the idea of God, the proofs for the existence of God, the attributes of God, the divine action in the universe, providence.

SUMMER AND EXTENSION COURSES.

For the convenience of teachers and of others who have satisfied the requirements of College Entrance, the University offers special courses in College subjects leading to the Bachelor degrees.

Special students may enroll in these courses for the cultural value to be gained thereby, but credit will not be granted until the proper entrance credentials have been approved and placed on file.

SUMMER SESSION. The summer school begins on June 16 and continues for 32 days, exclusive of holidays. Students may elect three subjects for a total of six semester, or three year, hours of credit. In special cases a student may be allowed to carry four subjects with a maximum of eight semester, or four year, hours of credit.

The Summer School offers special courses for teachers, consisting of Educational Psychology, Educational Measurements, Principles of teaching, Special Methods, School Management, Observation and Practice Teaching.

The Louisiana State Department of Education and the New Orleans School Board give credit to teachers for summer work done at Loyola University.

In addition to the above-mentioned teacher-training courses, special attention is given during Summer School to the preparation of prospective teachers for passing the State Examinations for teacher certificates. These examinations are held annually at Loyola University under the supervision of the Director of the Summer School.

SATURDAY EXTENSION. On Saturdays from 9 to 12, College courses are offered throughout a year of thirty-four weeks. Two semester, or one year, hour can be gained in each subject, and three subjects may be chosen.

NIGHT EXTENSION. During the school year from 7 to 9 every night except Saturdays and Sundays, the University offers special courses in College subjects. Each subject is given twice a week for two semesters, making a total of four semester, or two year, hours of credit for each subject. A student may elect three to five subjects according to his ability and the leisure available for home study. The schedule elected should be approved by the Dean.

CREDIT.

As the subjects offered and the home work required are the same as in the regular College of Arts and Sciences, semester hours of credit are allowed according to the number of subjects successfully carried through a session of at least thirty-two hours each.

In the Summer Session one may gain six to eight semester hours; in Saturday Extension, six semester hours; and in Night Extension, six to ten semester hours.

No credit will be given for any work which is a duplication of work already credited.

ATTENDANCE.

Regular attendance is required in every course. Absences exceeding ten per cent of the total hours will disqualify from examination, except in the case of sickness when the Professor may, with the approval of the Dean, permit the examination, if all the omitted work has been made up and the attendance is above seventy-five per cent.

RESIDENCE.

No student will be approved for a degree who has not spent one year (Senior year) in Residence. Residence is measured by actual hours of attendance at classes conducted by the Professors of Loyola University in the College of Arts and Sciences.

The candidate must present at least 30 semester hours of credit gained in residence work, exclusive of credit gained by examination. Four Summer or Extension Sessions will be considered equivalent to one year of regular residence, provided the required 30 semester credits have been earned in course.

REGISTRATION.

A student must register in the same manner as regular students. The same entrance units are required, and the official credentials must have been approved and be on file in the Registrar's Office.

ADVANCED STANDING.

Advanced Standing is allowed to a student:

1. When the official transcript of College credits earned in an approved College, has been examined and evaluated by the Committee on Admission. The same standing will be allowed as was granted by the other college provided the courses offered are equivalent to the University courses.
2. When the student passes a satisfactory examination in the whole subject as given in the regular college course. Such an examination will be required whenever there is any doubt about the equivalency of the course offered, or when the student cannot present credentials for the work done, which are considered satisfactory. Not more than forty semester hours will be accepted by such examinations.

ABSENTIA WORK.

A student may be allowed to arrange with the Head of a Department a course of home study which he will prepare by private work under the direction of the Professor in charge of that course. To gain credit for such work done in absentia the student must submit to the Dean an outline of the course which has been approved by the Professor. He will receive a permit card which he will present to the Dean when he comes up for examination. He will receive a card entitling him to an examination on the day assigned. This card will be presented to the Professor before the examination who will return it, with the result of the examination and his signature, to the Registrar.

Credit for absentia work will not be allowed unless the course was approved before the work was done, and a satisfactory examination was passed, covering the whole subject of a regular course.

FEES.

All students on matriculating in the College must pay the usual fee of $10.00.

The tuition fee for the Summer Session is $15.00 regardless of the number of courses elected.

The tuition fee for the Saturday Extension Courses is $20.00.

The tuition for Night Extension is $50.00 if the maximum number of courses is chosen. Those who select only one or more courses will be charged $20.00 for the first course elected, and $10.00 for each additional course.

A charge of $5.00 is made for each subject taken up for absentia work or home study under the University supervision. The fee for the special examination required is $2.00 which must be paid when the examination card is issued before the examination.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES.

The courses in each department are numbered as in the regular College curriculum. The letters added to the course numbers indicate the course as given in Extension and Summer Sessions. W indicates Saturday Extension courses; N, night Extension courses through the school year; S, courses in Summer School.

The Summer School courses will not be listed here. There are many extra courses outside of the regular college curriculum offered to teachers in their professional work. These courses are described in full in the Summer School Bulletin issued annually by the University in March before the Summer Session.

Only such courses will be given as the demands of the registration will require. At least fifteen regular students are required to make a class. The University reserves the right to cancel any course if the registration is insufficient.

NIGHT EXTENSION COURSES.

ENGLISH 1-2 N.

4 Sem. Hrs.

Rhetoric and Composition.—The Freshman course in the essential forms of composition. A study of style in prose and poetry. Frequent exercises in English writing with particular attention to correctness of form, clearness of expression, and force of diction.

HISTORY 7-8 N.

4 Sem. Hrs.

Special Topics in Mediæval European History.—These courses deal with events, movements, and institutions of the Middle Ages and are, consequently, a topical study of Mediæval History. Special stress is laid upon all events, movements and institutions which had a direct bearing upon the Church, as, v. g. the Origin and Development of the Papacy, the Influence and Temporal Power of the Popes, the Holy Roman Empire, the Controversy with regard to Investitures, Mediæval Religious life, the Mendicant Friars and their work, Mediæval Universities, the Mediæval concept of Representative Government, the Babylonian Captivity of the Papacy, the Great Schism, the Protestant Revolt of the Sixteenth Century, the Catholic Reaction or Counter-Reformation, Missionary Enterprise in Asia and America, etc. The Middle Ages—its movements, ideals and institution,—being intimately bound up with the Church, no proper appreciation of these times can be had without the study of the Church which motived them.

HISTORY.

Loyola University threw open the doors of her Dental Department in 1914. From an humble beginning, the Dental School has steadily developed until today it is one of the best equipped institutions for the training of dentists in the South.

The beautiful Marquette Hall, one of the most exquisite building of the Tudor-Gothic cluster which arrests the eye of every visitor passing along St. Charles Avenue, was turned over by the University to the Dental School. Its spacious halls, its perfectly equipped laboratories, its lightesome, airy clinics, give the dental student every opportunity to perfect himself in all the delicate details which go to make up modern dentistry. The location and environment are ideal for the fostering of a refined and cultured spirit, with that regard for aesthetics which must accompany the young dentist through life.

The Dental Infirmary occupies two large halls, with additional rooms for oral surgery. The equipment is of the very best quality and perfectly up-to-date. Cleanliness is considered a cardinal point and no effort is spared to secure the sanitary and hygienic condition necessary for clinical operations.

A costly X-ray machine is installed in an adjoining room, and excellent radiographs are taken to help the student in his diagnosis and to direct him in his operations.

Patients present themselves at the clinic in such numbers that every student is assured abundant practice and experience. Serious cases are operated upon by the Professor of Oral Surgery in the clinic demonstration rooms. A trained nurse and the senior students assist in these operations.

HOSPITAL FACILITIES.

Loyola University offers to its students exceptional facilities in acquiring actual experience in hospital practice and methods. New Orleans is famed for its advantages to the student of Medicine because of the variety of the pathological cases which are gathered here from all quarters of the globe. The excellent hospitals of this city, especially the large CHARITY HOSPITAL, afford an unlimited field for scientific investigation.

The Dental Students are obliged to attend clinics in surgery at the Charity Hospital under the foremost surgeons of the South. They are instructed in the actual work of making diagnosis and witness the subsequent operations. They acquire experience in the administration of the various forms of anesthesia, and learn the importance of careful, antiseptic precautions.

It would be difficult to exaggerate the value of this privilege, accorded to the University by the State, whereby the students gain first-hand experience under such favorable conditions as present themselves at the Charity Hospital, and the benefit of close association with the great men of the Loyola Post-Graduate School of Medicine.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS.

Students applying for admission later than ten days after the opening day of the session cannot be credited with a full course unless such delay is due to sickness, which must be vouched for by the certificate of a reputable practicing physician. In such case, the date of admission shall not be later than twenty days from the opening day.

Requirements for Admission.

1. The requirement for entrance shall consist of graduation from an accredited high school or academy which requires for graduation not less than fifteen units of high school work obtained in a four-year course. No conditions on the foregoing entrance requirements shall be allowed.

Three of the required units should be in English, one in Algebra, one in Geometry, and one in Physics, Chemistry or Biology. During the Summer School a student may make up deficiencies in the above subjects, prior to registration. The other nine units may be made up from other subjects included in a standard High School course.

N. B.—As there can be no question as to the helpfulness of a broad education in the pursuit of modern dentistry, aspirants to the profession are requested to seize every opportunity of improving their preliminary training. One or two years in a college of Liberal Arts after the regular high school course will give a culture and mental fitness that will be a wonderful asset throughout life. Arrangements can be made whereby students with two years of college credit may at the end of the four-year dental course receive the degree of B. S. along with the degree of D. D. S.

2. An accredited high school is defined as one which is accredited as a four-year high school by the United States Bureau of Education, by the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, by a University which is a member of the Association of American Universities, or by the State University of the State in which the high school is located.

3. In the case of an applicant who is not a graduate from a high school or academy, as defined above, the full equivalent of such education in each individual case must be established, and attested to by the State Superintendent of Education of Louisiana.

4. Students who desire to enter the Dental School are requested to make application as early as possible before Registration Day. At the same time they should give the name and address of the high school from which they graduated. The Registrar will immediately write to the principal of this school for credentials of the applicant, and in due time inform the latter whether he is eligible for matriculation.

5. It is very important for students to be present on the opening day, a delay of a few days often interfering materially with their studies. No one can be accepted later than ten days after the beginning of classes, and to obtain credit for a year's work a student must remain until the close of the session and successfully complete all the examinations.

Students of both sexes are admitted on equal terms.

Students in matriculating thereby agree to accept the regulations and discipline imposed by the officers or faculty.

6. Students with two full years' credit from Class "A" Medical Schools, approved by the American Medical Association, may be admitted to the Sophomore Class.

Requirements for Graduation or Advancement.

At the close of the fourth year a student who has passed all examinations satisfactorily receives the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery (D. D. S.) on the following conditions:

He must be of age and of good moral character.

He must have passed a satisfactory examination in all the branches of the curriculum, must have attended the practical instruction in all departments, and complied with all the technical and clinical requirements.

He must sign an agreement with the Dean to live up to the ethics of the profession.

EXAMINATIONS.

The examinations are conducted in writing, and are held at the middle and close of each year, thus dividing the strain upon the student.

Prior to such examinations the candidate must have deposited with the school approved specimens of his work and performed the prescribed amount of work in the Operatory and Technical Laboratories.

PASSING MARK, CONDITION, AND FAILURE.

The passing mark shall be 75 per cent.

A grade between 60 per cent. and 75 per cent. is defined as a condition.

A grade below 60 per cent. is defined as a failure.

A condition may be removed by examination.

A failure may not be removed except by repetition of the course in part or entirely—i. e., by additional work under instruction approved by the Dean or the Professor in charge of the subject.

A condition which is not removed by examination prior to the next school year, becomes a failure, and must be removed as such.

Condition examinations must be taken on the days appointed by the Dean. No credit will be given for any examination taken out of the usual time unless the student obtains a Permit Card which he will present to the Professor before the Examination. The Professor will return this card to the Registrar with the result of the examination. The charge for all such examinations is $2.00.

PROMOTION OF STUDENTS.

A student who has incomplete courses, conditions, or failures in 40 per cent. of his course shall be required to repeat the year, or be dropped from the school.

A student may not be promoted if he has conditions or failures in more than 20 per cent. of the course of any year.

A student who fails to remove a condition or failure within twelve months from the time it was incurred will not be allowed to proceed with his class.

An incomplete course is one that has not been completed because of illness or other personal emergency.

ATTENDANCE.

Students, to obtain credit for a full term, must be faithful in attendance and remain until the close of the session. A minimum attendance of 85 per cent. is required in each course.

STUDENTS' CONDUCT.

Regular attendance is insisted upon, and repeated or unexplained absences may be deemed sufficient reason for dismissal or withholding credits for a year's work. The record of attendance for each year must be at least 85 per cent.

Respectful demeanor towards professors and one another is expected of all the students, as well as honorable conduct at all times, both within and without the College.

The College reserves the right to terminate its connection with any student at any time, whenever such action may seem advisable, on the grounds of immoral or disorderly conduct, or failure to conform to the rules of the College.

Tuition fees once paid cannot under any circumstances be returned. Tickets cannot be transferred. Matriculation fees once paid cannot be returned or transferred. Students agree to these conditions when paying fees.

The breakage fee will be administered and refunded according to the regulations of the College. Out of it is taken a charge for damage, loss or injury to materials, apparatus or property; and the distribution of this charge is made to individuals or classes, according to circumstances.

Each student may have an individual locker for $2.00 a year.

A fee of $2.00 per examination payable in advance to the Registrar will be charged for each extra or special examination that is required.

ATHLETIC FEE.

An annual athletic fee of $10.00 will be charged each student of the University, which admits him to all local games played under the auspices of the Athletic Association. This fee is payable on October 1, to the Loyola University Athletic Association. No student is excused from the payment of this fee.

SESSION 1923-1924.

The Dental Clinic will open September 3. All Senior students are expected to return for clinic not later than September 18.

Lectures begin Thursday, September 27. All students must be registered before October 9.

For further information apply to the Registrar.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Publishers of text and reference books are requested to send all copies of books for inspection direct to the School of Dentistry, care of Regent, where they will be shown to Professors and students, and will be kept in the Dental reference library.

Extracted teeth are an absolute necessity in our technic laboratories. The School requests its practicing graduates and their friends to send as many of these as possible during the year.

TEXT-BOOKS.

Each student must be provided with his own copy of the various text-books before being admitted to classes. Professors will refuse credit for any course in which a student is not properly provided with books.

CURRICULUM.

GENERAL ANATOMY.

PROFESSOR JAMES JOSEPH RYAN, M. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OTTO J. BURGER, M. D.

The Course in Anatomy is complete and thorough. The didactic lectures are supplemented by daily projection of slides and colored charts and frequent quizzes. The whole body is studied, but especial emphasis and more detailed instruction are given to the head and neck.

The Laboratory of Anatomy is supplied with ample material for dissection purposes, and the students are required to perform their dissection work under the guidance of the Associate Professor.

DENTAL ANATOMY.

PROFESSOR JOSEPH E. PSAYLA, M. A., D. D. S.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR JAS. J. ARROYO, D. D.

DEMONSTRATOR W. W. WOLFORD, D. D. S.

In this department the structure, development, characteristics, arrangement, and nomenclature of all the teeth are studied with minute detail.

In the Laboratory, teeth are carved in plaster and bone, and careful practice in technics is insisted upon.

BACTERIOLOGY.

PROFESSOR OLIVER L. POTHIER, M. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR H. T. NICOLLE, M. D.

A thorough course in the morphological and biological characteristics of bacteria, with instruction on laboratory methods of preparing and investigating bacteriological forms.

Special emphasis is laid upon the bacteriological investigation of organisms which are found in infected areas of the teeth and jaws. Actual specimens of infectious cases met with in the Infirmary are examined by the students in the Laboratory.

BIOLOGY.

PROFESSOR SIDNEY L. TIBLIER, A. B., M. S., D. D. S.

INSTRUCTOR EDMOND L. MERILH, M. S.

This course covers the field of general Biology. Plant structures and animal organisms are carefully considered in lectures, and specimens are investigated by the students under the microscope. Dissection work with star fish, frogs, cats, etc. helps to bring out the functional properties of living beings. Lantern projections of specimens and charts are frequently used.

CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK.

DENTAL CERAMICS

PROFESSOR J. HAMILTON LANDRY, D. D. S.

PROFESSOR R. E. SHERWOOD, D. D. S.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR N. F. GUENO, D. D. S.

These branches will be taught didactically, technically, and practically. Lectures are given on the most approved systems of crowns, fixed and removable bridge-work.

Ceramics: The lectures and work of this course includes the principles of the art of color selection, color mixing and blending, the fusing and baking of porcelain. Full instruction and practical clinical work is given especially in the preparation of vital teeth for porcelain jacket or veneer crowns. In the Laboratory, the technic work is carefully gone through, and the many cases in the Infirmary supply abundant opportunity to put in practice the knowledge acquired in the technic laboratory.

CHEMISTRY.

PROFESSOR SIDNEY L. TIBLIER, A. B., M. S., D. D. S.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR J. A. WHELAN, S. J., M. A.

1. Inorganic Chemistry: This is a practical course in the study of the elements, their compounds, characteristics, and properties. In the laboratory, practical Qualitative and Quantitative methods of analysis are required of each student.

2. Metallurgy: Careful study of metals and compounds, and of the scientific principles which must be considered in the actual work in the laboratory.

3. Organic Chemistry: This course covers the most common groups and their important relation to the dentist. In the laboratory of physiological chemistry frequent tests and analyses are made by the students.

TECHNICAL DRAWING.

PROFESSOR ALLISON OWEN, A. I. A.

Students are required to present plates covering the elementary principles of drawing and practice in the use of instruments. Besides the technical training, free hand work is required in the production of illustrative charts of dental subjects with attention to perspective and shading.

ENGLISH.

PROFESSOR J. C. KEARNS, S. J., M. A.

This course reviews the general principles of composition and insists on securing a neat and clear style, free from any violations of syntax. The style of letters, essays, and speeches is emphasized with the view of preparing the students for the use they must make of English in their professional life.

ETHICS.

PROFESSOR F. D. SULLIVAN, S. J., M. A.

The fundamental principles of right, moral conduct are given in these lectures with particular applications to the duties of the dentist in regard to his patients, the community, and his fellow practitioners.

HISTOLOGY.

PROFESSOR O. L. POTHIER, M. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR JAS. J. ARROYO, D. D. S.

General Histology: This course embraces the practical study of cells and tissues of the body. Microscopical study of the cells as the structural and functional unit of the body is insisted upon.

Dental Histology: The tissues of the teeth and oral cavity are studied with greater minuteness. Charts and models are made use of, and special slides are prepared for microscopical study and projection.

CLINICAL DENTISTRY—INFIRMARY PRACTICE.

PROFESSOR C. V. VIGNES, A. M., D. D. S.

SUPT. OF CLINIC, D. F. BALLINA, D. D. S.

DEMONSTRATOR F. J. GENRE, D. D. S.

INSTRUCTOR A. P. DANSEREAU, D. D. S.

Practical training is given in prophylaxis, and in operative and prosthetic dentistry. The students under the actual supervision of the demonstrators attend to the patients that present themselves at the clinic. Difficult cases are inspected and discussed before the students by the professors of the respective branches. Every effort is made to safely guide them to correct, safe, and up-to-date methods of procedure.

JURISPRUDENCE.

PROFESSOR A. J. BONOMO, A. B., LL. D.

Dental Jurisprudence: These lectures cover the laws and regulations pertaining to the practice of dentistry, with all the legal relationship of dentist and patient, their rights and liabilities, etc.

MATERIA MEDICA.

PROFESSOR E. ESCALANTE, A. B., M. D.

This course includes the classification, description, compounding, properties, and action of drugs and medicines which a dentist may have to deal with. Special stress is laid upon the action of the more important drugs used in dentistry, with a full discussion of their physiological effects and the proper methods of administration.

Prescription writing is explained in detail, and the students are made to fill common prescriptions in the pharmacy laboratory under the professor's direction.

OPERATIVE DENTISTRY.

PROFESSOR E. A. GAMARD, D. D. S.

DEMONSTRATOR W. W. WOLFORD, D. D. S.

1. Operative Dentistry: The lectures cover the entire field of operative dentistry. The student is made familiar with the fundamental principles of dental operations, the technic methods to be used in treating decay, preparing cavities, and the most approved method of filling teeth.

2. Operative Technics: In the laboratory, a thorough course is given in practical operations on natural or carved teeth, until the student is perfectly familiar with the forms and structure of the teeth, the location, size and shape of the pulp chamber and canals. The student thus becomes familiar with the technic of operations before passing to the Clinic.

3. Clinic Practice: Under the guidance and direction of the demonstrators, the student is made to carry out in actual operations the principles which he has learned in the lecture room and laboratory.

ORAL HYGIENE AND PROPHYLAXIS.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR A. P. DANSEREAU, D. D. S.

In this course the health of the mouth and the dangers of infection to the teeth and gums from lack of proper care, are taught in detail. The best methods of Prophylaxis are explained, which are made eminently practical by work on actual cases in the Infirmary.

ORAL SURGERY.

PROFESSOR C. P. KELLEHER, D. D. S.

PROFESSOR HOMER DUPUY, Ph. D., M. D.

PROFESSOR J. A. DANNA, Ph. D., M. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR L. DePOORTER, M. D.

INSTRUCTOR G. O. ROSADO, D. D. S.

1. Exodontia: The scientific extraction of teeth is carefully explained in lectures, special attention being given to the difficult cases that the dentist meets with. Special clinic periods are assigned for demonstrations in the Oral Surgery rooms of the College of difficult and instructive cases at which the students assist.

2. Anesthesia: Didactic lectures are given in general and local anesthetics. There are frequent demonstrations of conductive and infiltrate methods, and the seniors are trained to administer the anesthetic under the direction of the demonstrator.

The students attend the clinic operations of our surgeons at Charity Hospital and are instructed in the use of nitrous oxide, ethyl chloride, ether, chloroform, and novocain.

3. Oral Surgery: Lectures cover the principles of general surgery with particular reference to the operations of nose, mouth, and throat.

In the clinics of Charity Hospital, the students witness the diagnosis and treatment of the various affections of ear, nose, and throat, and are instructed in the administration of anesthetics.

The Senior students under a Professor or Instructor of the Oral Surgery department assist at the Free Dental Clinic of Charity Hospital daily from 11 to 12. This offers an abundant field for diagnosis and practical experience in Exodontia.

In the Dental Infirmary and in Charity Hospital serious cases of affected jaws and sinuses are examined and treated by the professor with the students assisting.

ORTHODONTIA.

PROFESSOR R. W. GASTON, D. D. S.

Orthodontia: This course covers the theory and practice of correcting the irregularities of the teeth and dentofacial deformities. Particular attention is given to the case of deciduous teeth and the corrective treatment of the permanent ones.

The technic laboratory work consists of free-hand soldering, preparation of adjusting, regulating, and retaining appliances, and the making of accurate methods.

In the Infirmary each student must conduct two or more cases throughout the year under the direction of the Professor.

PATHOLOGY.

PROFESSOR O. L. POTHIER, M. D.

General Pathology: These lectures give the principles of general pathology with special reference to the needs of the dental student. The pathological condition of the important organs of the body when diseased, are explained, and prepared slides are studied under the microscope. Autopsies are held, and the students are taught to prepare specimens for examination and diagnosis.

PHYSIOLOGY.

PROFESSOR JOHN SIGNORELLI, M. D.

PROFESSOR S. L. TIBLIER, M. S., D. D. S.

Instruction in this branch is both didactic and experimental. The lectures cover the whole field of general physiology, the functions, composition, and operations of the body structures.

In the laboratory small mammals are used for dissection work to help the student to identify the structures and to observe the physiological processes of respiration, circulation, and digestion. Attention is given to the instruments of precision for recording the more delicate functions.

PHYSICS.

PROFESSOR A. J. WESTLAND, S. J., M. A.

This lecture course covers the general field of physics—mechanics, heat, light, and electricity with special attention to such subjects as will be most useful to the dentist, as the theory of X-rays, lantern projection, etc. The very complete equipment of the laboratory of Physics enables the student to gain practical knowledge of the machines.

PRINCIPLES OF MEDICINE.

PROFESSOR W. V. GALE, B. S., PH. G., M. D.

1. Infectious diseases. 2. Constitutional diseases. 3. Diseases of the heart and lungs. 4. Diseases resulting from Dental Pathology. Lectures are given on the history, etiology, symptoms and treatment of the diseases most important for the dentist to recognize in the practice of his profession. Particular care is given to instruct the student on the anesthetic of choice, and the conditions unfavorable for the administration of anesthetics. The significance of diseases during which dental procedures must be conducted with extreme caution to obviate untoward results. The importance of focal infections, general and local. The lectures are emphasized by frequent demonstrations as occasion presents, in the lecture hall, Charity Hospital and Hotel Dieu, on the subject matter covered. The knowledge thus acquired is of inestimable value in the study of physical diagnosis.

Reference: Medicine by Osler-Stevens.

PHYSICAL DIAGNOSIS.

PROFESSOR W. V. GALE, B. S., PH. G., M. D.

PROFESSOR J. A. DANNA, Ph. D., M. D.

PROFESSOR HOMER DUPUY, Ph. D., M. D.

1. General principles of physical diagnosis.
2. Methods of examination, percussion, palpation, auscultation, blood pressure determinations, laboratory diagnosis, urine analysis, coagulation time tests, etc.
3. Differentiating the normal from the abnormal, particularly of the heart and lungs.

The Evidence of Disease comprises:

1. A brief consideration of the clinical anatomy and physiology of certain organs and systems.
2. A description of the approved methods of examination.
3. A careful consideration of the diagnostic significance of each sign and symptom.
4. From these deductions diagnosis, direct and differential, is made.

For the purpose of clinical study, the subject is divided into medical and surgical diagnosis. The students, in small sections, witness demonstrations of the various methods of diagnosis conducted by our professors, in their respective specialties at the Charity Hospital and Hotel Dieu.

DENTAL PATHOLOGY.

PROFESSOR LUCIAN BLAND, D. D. S.

PROFESSOR R. E. SIERWOOD, D. D. S.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR DAVID C. WHITE, D. D. S.

Diseases of the teeth and associated parts are described in detail, the symptoms for correct diagnosis are carefully noted, and the proper treatment suggested.

Particular attention is given to the study of neoplasms of the mouth and jaws, and of the pathological changes of dental pulp, periodontal membrane, alveolar process, and such malignant types as Vincent's Angina, etc.

PROSTHETIC DENTISTRY.

PROFESSOR JOSEPH E. PSAYLA, M. A., D. D. S.

INSTRUCTOR W. W. WOLFORD, D. D. S.

INSTRUCTOR N. F. GUENO, D. D. S.

Lectures are given on the theory and principles of constructing all approved types of artificial dentures. Methods of taking perfect impressions of the mouth, of making models, dies and counter-dies, of selecting and arranging teeth to harmonize with the facial cosmetics of the individual case, of finishing and polishing base-plates, etc. are fully explained and demonstrated.

In the laboratory the students are practiced in all details of construction of artificial dentures. Each student is required to prepare satisfactory models of the various types to be kept in the exhibit case as a record of skill.

RADIOLOGY.

PROFESSOR J. FRANCIS CARTER, D. D. S.

X-ray Technic: A practical course by lecture and demonstration in the principles of the X-ray machines, the proper adjustment of current and electromotive-force; dosage, etc. Practical work in adjusting and developing dental films; also larger films and plates. Instruction in preparing photographic materials.

Oral Diagnosis: Lectures and practical training in reading and interpreting radiographs, in making diagnosis of mouth conditions, and actual practice with their own clinic cases.

SCHOOL OF LAW.

Historical Statement.

Loyola Law School was established in October, 1914. During the first year of its existence the classes were held in the Alumni Hall of the College of the Immaculate Conception, Common and Baronne Streets. An increase in the student body made the removal of the school necessary, and it was decided to use the spacious halls of the University.

Location.

The University is located on St. Charles Avenue, opposite Audubon Park. The Law School is housed in Marquette Hall, the main building, thus affording ample space for all the purposes of that Department. Several car lines put it in easy reach from all parts of the city.

Course of Studies and System of Instruction.

The Course of Studies embraces the entire field of law, but has been mapped out with the special end in view of qualifying the student for practice before the State Courts of Louisiana and the Federal Courts generally. It provides, however, a special course in Common Law, and is sufficiently broad in its scope to cover, generally, the law of the other States, as is proved by the fact that those of our students who have taken the Bar Examinations in Common Law States have passed successfully. Evening classes were decided upon, partly as offering opportunities to many ambitious and worthy young men whose occupations would deprive them of an opportunity to acquire a profession, and partly in order that students might be able to combine the practical with the theoretical side of the law by entering the offices of practicing attorneys and benefiting by the experience thus gained. The text-book and lecture system is followed throughout the entire course, and reference is made to leading cases on the important points of each subject. The student is required to read the daily assignment in each course before the class session. The professor then lectures on the text assigned, comments on the leading cases, points out difficulties, and explains them. Later, quizzes are held covering the same matter, in which the student is questioned and made to apply the principles studied. In this way he is given every opportunity to attain a fair mastery of each particular branch.

The full Course of Studies covers a period of three years, at the end of which the Degree of Bachelor of Laws is conferred on those who have successfully passed the required examinations. This degree entitles the recipient to practise before all State and Federal Courts in Louisiana.

Sessions.

The regular session begins about the third week of September of each year, and extends to the end of the following May, thus covering (exclusive of all holidays) thirty-two full weeks. The regular examinations will commence in the third week of May, although occasional examinations may be held during the session. Classes are held on all Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, from 7 to 9 p. m., and therefore include ten full lecture hours per week, which are at times extended.

Requirements for Admission and Graduation.

Applicants for admission to the professional course must have completed their eighteenth year at the time of application, and must be graduates of a high school of recognized standing. Students who have not completed a high school course may be admitted if, in the opinion of the Regent of the Law School, they have completed a course which is fully equivalent. However, High School standing does not of itself qualify for admission. Collegiate training is always desirable, and College credits of at least one year will be demanded should lack of maturity or other deficiencies in the applicant so require. Provision is now made in the Loyola night Extension Course for the acquisition of such credits, and these facilities will be gradually enlarged. It is intended in 1925, to make the essentials of a College Course the standard of admission.

Students who have completed the full three years' course, and passed satisfactorily the required examinations, will be entitled to the Degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL. B.) on the regular commencement day of the University, provided they have then completed their twenty-first year or shall complete the same on or before the first Monday in October next thereafter.

Special Students.

Applicants unable to meet the requirements for admission or to follow the entire course, may be enrolled as special students. These will be ineligible for a Degree, but will be awarded certificates showing the credits earned and the work accomplished.

Advanced Standing.

Only those applicants will be admitted to advanced standing who have done accredited work in regular attendance at a recognized law school, and who present credentials therefrom. Such candidates are required to complete all the courses in our Curriculum for which they bring no credits, and no student shall be considered eligible for a degree who has not completed at Loyola University School of Law at least one scholastic year of resident study. Office and Correspondence School work will not be considered for credits or advancement.

Fees and Expenses.

Matriculation Fee	$ 10.00
Tuition Fee	120.00
Library Fee	5.00
Graduation Fee	15.00

The tuition fee is payable quarterly in advance, viz.: On date of registration, and on the first day of December, February and April. Conditioned students must pay $5.00 before re-examination in any subject. All other fees must be paid on date of registration. Students in arrears will not be permitted to take the examinations. The graduation and matriculation fees are payable but once. The former must be paid before delivery of the diploma.

Outside of the Louisiana Civil Code and Code of Practice, the yearly cost of text-books should not exceed $30.00.

Registration.

Students intending to enter the school must register between the second Monday in September and the day of the opening. For good and sufficient reasons, students may be allowed an additional delay in which to enter, but under no circumstances will a student be given credit for a full course who fails to register before or within the first week of October. A certificate of character and conduct, attested by at least two reputable persons, will be required of all applicants.

Law Library.

A well selected Law Library, comprising the latest editions of standard text-books, reports of the Federal Courts, and the leading State reports, has been established for the accommodation of the students. The fund created by payment of the Library Fees is set apart for investment in books for the library. Re-examination fees are also devoted to this purpose. The value of the Law Library has been notably enhanced by the recent donations of the entire Law Library of the late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Honorable Edward Douglass White, consisting of over 2,000 judiciously chosen volumes, and of the Law Libraries of the late Justice Charles Parlange and of Justice John St. Paul of 2,000 volumes, many of special worth to Louisiana students, and raising the library content to over ten thousand volumes.

Court Procedure.

In order that students may become familiar with actual court practice, the lectures on Evidence and the Code of Practice are supplemented by special lectures on practical court work and the actual trial of cases. Full trial procedure is explained, including the routine of impaneling juries, examining and cross-examining witnesses, making objections and motions, presenting arguments to court and jury, and every step from the inception of the cause up to and including judgment or verdict in the lower court and Appellate procedure.

Cases are prepared under the guidance of Hon. Wm. H. Byrnes, Jr., LL. D., Judge of the Civil District Court, who delivers a preparatory and directive course of lectures on Court Procedure to the Senior Class.

The Loyola Law Journal.

The Loyola Law Journal is a law review published and edited by the students of the Law School. It is issued quarterly and consists of leading articles on legal topics, editorials, book reviews and comment on current decisions. The students are assisted in its production by the Faculty who aim to give the Journal a text-book value, and have so prescribed and made obligatory its use.

For further information apply to the Dean of the Law School, 901 Title Guarantee Bldg., or to the Secretary, 903 Title Guarantee Bldg., or to the Regent, Loyola University, 6363 St. Charles Ave., New Orleans.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

The Faculty hereby makes grateful acknowledgment for donations of valuable volumes to the Loyola Law Library:

To Mrs. Lelia M. White for the munificent gift of the complete Law Library of the late Chief Justice Edward Douglass White.

To Mrs. Parlange for the likewise munificent gift of the law Library of over one thousand well chosen and valuable volumes of the Hon. Charles Parlange, late Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana and United States District Judge.

To Hon. John St. Paul, Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, for the most valuable portion of his fine law library, including rare original editions of Corpus Juris, the Pandects, Gaius, Ulpian, Pothier, Lopez, Code of Alfonso the Wise, 1663, and many others of intrinsic and historic value.

To Messrs. Bernard and John McCloskey and Mr. John G. Gibbs for useful additions to the Library.

HISTORY.

The College of Pharmacy was originally the New Orleans College of Pharmacy and was incorporated under that name May 14, 1900.

In 1913 it became affiliated with Loyola University.

In May, 1919 the New Orleans College of Pharmacy was taken over by Loyola University, with all its rights and privileges.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

This College holds membership in the American Conference of Pharmaceutical Faculties, the object of which is to promote the interests of pharmaceutical education. All institutions holding membership in this Association must maintain certain minimum requirements for entrance and graduation. Through the influence of this Conference higher standards of education have been adopted from time to time and the fact that several states by law and by Board ruling recognize the standards of the Conference is evidence of its influence.

The College is also given full recognition by the Regents of the University of the State of New York.

The purpose of the school is to provide instruction for students who desire to acquire the special training necessary for the successful practice of pharmacy. The importance, both to the pharmacist and to the public, of a thorough scientific training in pharmacy is now fully recognized. It is also generally acknowledged that the dispenser of medicines must be held responsible for the strength and purity of his preparations. The old-time apprenticeship in the drug store has long ceased to be adequate to educate properly the prospective pharmacist. The necessary education cannot be found in the drug store alone, however valuable the experience gained there. In this day and time it is necessary that the prospective pharmacist pursue a thorough and systematic course in pharmacy, under the guidance of experienced teachers and aided by the facilities for instruction which a well equipped school of pharmacy affords.

All branches included in our curriculum are taught solely to the students of The College of Pharmacy and never in conjunction with those of any other department of the University; and this must impress those contemplating a course of Pharmacy that an institution making PHARMACY a specialty is far better suited to such purpose than where it is taught at the same time to the students of science, dentistry or medicine.

The course of instruction followed adheres as closely as possible to the PHARMACEUTICAL SYLLABUS, recommended by the National Committee represented by the Boards and Schools of Pharmacy of the United States.

SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION.

The instruction in this institution is divided into a Junior and Senior course of about eight months each, leading to the degree of Graduate in Pharmacy (Ph. G.).

The Junior course embraces Inorganic Chemistry, including Qualitative Analysis, Theoretical Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Manipulations; Physics, as applied to pharmacy and chemistry; Botany, Physiology and Urinalysis.

Throughout the session examinations will be held periodically, and if the students make the required standing will be exempted from the final examinations. Those passing the periodical or final examinations will be permitted to enter the Senior class.

The Senior course is a continuation of that of the Junior year, taking up the more difficult and advanced work required of the pharmacist. It embraces Inorganic and Organic Chemistry, Theoretical and Practical Pharmacy, Materia Medica, Pharmacognosy, Toxicology, Physics and Commercial Pharmacy.

Fees.JUNIOR YEAR.

General Lecture Ticket.....	$100.00
Laboratory Ticket	10.00
Laboratory Breakage Deposit.....	5.00
Matriculation Fee	5.00
Athletic Fee	10.00

SENIOR YEAR.

General Lecture Ticket.....	$100.00
Laboratory Ticket	10.00
Laboratory Breakage Deposit.....	5.00
Athletic Fee	10.00
Graduation Fee	25.00
Library Fee	3.00

The unconsumed balance of the Laboratory Breakage Deposit is returned to the student at the close of each year.

This will be forfeited unless the student is checked up and the fee called for within fifteen days after the close of the session.

No fees except Laboratory Breakage will be returned to any student in the event of leaving College after matriculating.

No student will be admitted to examination for advancement or graduation until all fees are paid.

Admission of Students.

Men and women are admitted to all classes upon equal terms.

Applicants for admission to the first-year class as candidates for a degree must be at least seventeen years of age, must be of good moral character, and must present certificates of graduation from a recognized high school offering a four years' course, or the equivalent as shown by properly certified credentials. At least fifteen high school units are required, of which three units must be in English, two units in mathematics, one unit in one science. The remaining nine units may be selected from certain subjects ordinarily taught in high schools.

Blank forms for these certificates will be supplied by the University upon application.

Admission by Examination.

Applicants whose credentials do not meet the requirements will be required to take an extra examination equivalent to the requirements.

Special Students.

An applicant who cannot furnish sufficient credentials to enter the regular course leading to a degree, may enter as a special student but he cannot stand for graduation and cannot receive a diploma.

Matriculation.

Matriculation books will open for the coming session in August. Students outside of the city should send to the Dean their certificates or other matter showing the extent of their preliminary education. This will avoid delay, and will give us time to pass upon the student's fitness to enter our Junior Class.

All Students are expected to be matriculated before the opening of the session, thus allowing ample time to be assigned to class and provided with laboratory outfit. It is expected that every student should be equipped and ready to perform the laboratory work at the beginning of the session. If students fail to observe the above, they not only delay themselves, but others as well.

Senior Class.

Candidates for admission to the Senior Class must have attended and completed the Junior course of instruction in this College, or give evidence of having attended a similar course at some reputable college of pharmacy, and having passed a satisfactory examination in the subject-matter of the Junior year of this College; provided, the work done is fully equivalent to such subjects included in the first year's work of this College.

An examination of candidates for admission to this class will be on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 20, 21 and 22, in the Marquette Hall, Loyola University.

Women in Pharmacy.

Women possess peculiar fitness for the study and pursuit of pharmacy. This fact is becoming daily more recognized and the number of women engaged in this calling is constantly increasing.

Requirements for Graduation.

Candidates for graduation must have attended two full courses of instruction in pharmacy, the last of which must have been at this College; and they must have attained the required percentage in the periodic or final examinations.

Unless excused by the Dean for sickness or other cause, all students must have attended during eighty-five per cent of the hours of instruction in each Department throughout the term, with a general attendance of ninety per cent. Failing to comply with this condition, the student will forfeit the privilege of presenting himself or herself for examination.

All candidates must be present at the Commencement Exercises and receive their degrees in person. No excuse outside of serious illness, attested by a reputable physician, will be accepted. The University will not confer degrees in absentia.

Degrees.

The degree conferred by this institution on its graduates is that of Graduate in Pharmacy (Ph. G.).

COURSES IN INSTRUCTION.

Chemistry.

These lectures, owing to the extent of the scientific field they embrace, especially their importance for a thorough knowledge of pharmacy, occupy a prominent part in the curriculum of this College.

As the South offers such a vast field of material of industrial importance, special attention will be given in both classes to those subjects which will be of interest to the students.

Junior Year—Four Hours Per Week.

The Junior work in this branch will begin with a treatise on chemical theory and physics, after which the non-metals will come under consideration, touching upon such points of interest as their discovery, origin, physical and chemical behavior. Their various compounds will be studied, modes of preparation, commercial and scientific importance, and points touching upon their identity and impurities will be taken up.

These lectures will be illustrated by experiments and supplemented by laboratory work, particularly upon those points of importance which enable the student to gain a further and clearer knowledge of the lessons the lecturer tries to impart.

In addition to the lectures, home work, comprising drilling in chemical formulas and equations, and problems, will be given with each lecture; and this home work and the substance of the lectures will be thoroughly reviewed under the quizzes. A special feature of these quizzes is blackboard drilling on the foregoing home work.

Text-books: Simon's Chemistry; Dorland's Medical Dictionary.

Senior Year—Six Hours Per Week.

The Senior work under this heading begins with a general outline of the metallic elements, after which each metal will be taken up in detail, with such of their compounds as are of scientific or pharmaceutical importance.

Tests for identity and impurities, modes of preparation, poisonous chemicals, and their antidotes, will all receive a full share of attention. The second half of the Senior year will be occupied with the chemistry of the carbon compounds, going as deeply into the subject as time will permit. The official organic compounds will be touched upon at some length, including manufacture and tests of identity. The class will also be given home work, including problems in oxidation and reduction, and the more difficult chemical equations.

Text-books: Simon's Chemistry; Remsen's Organic Chemistry (4th Revision).

Laboratory.

The course in this department embraces qualitative and quantitative analysis.

Each student is provided with table, reagents, gas, water, scales, weights, and all facilities to properly conduct his or her work.

Junior Year—Five Hours Per Week.

Instruction under this head is in two parts. One part will be confined to the experiments which have been arranged to follow each lecture, including the proper manipulation of chemical apparatus, handling, manufacture and testing of the commoner gases and those compounds included under the non-metallic elements. The second part of the work will include qualitative analysis of bases and acids.

Text-book: Schimpf's Qualitative Analysis.

Senior Year—Six Hours Per Week.

The Senior student will begin with a review of the Junior work, to be followed by qualitative analysis, both gravimetric and volumetric. Urinary analysis, both qualitative and quantitative, as well as milk analysis, will also be considered.

Under Organic Chemistry such work as testing the commoner organic compounds will be taken up.

Text-book: Schimpf's Volumetric Analysis (5th Ed.).

Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Chemistry.

Junior Year—Four Hours Per Week.

Owing to its importance in pharmacy, the Pharmacopœia will be treated in detail, especially the value of the standards laid down by the Government. Weights and measures of all systems will be taken up in fullest detail. The metric system, owing to its scientific and practical importance, will be given especial consideration.

Drills in the conversion of one system into the other will constitute part of the work.

Solutions, including percentage solution, specific gravity and specific volume, will be taught by demonstrations, using all necessary apparatus for this purpose, accompanied by a thorough explanation of each.

The subject of heat as applied to pharmacy will be next considered. In addition to discussing the various apparatus and fuels, the operations requiring heat will be considered, as evaporation, distillation, sublimation, exsiccation, etc., in addition to the importance of various baths to control temperature.

The preservation and preparation of crude drugs for manufacturing purposes, as grinding, pulverization, etc., will be next considered.

The process of decantation, filtration and percolation will be taken up and thoroughly explained.

Having completed the subjects of operative pharmacy, the galenical preparations will be critically studied. While the various preparations will be discussed and studied from the standpoint of their several classifications, those preparations of merit and those most frequently used will be given individual consideration, the object being to familiarize the student with the reasons and preparations.

The use of expensive and complicated apparatus will be avoided and, while all labor-saving devices will receive proper attention, the student will be taught to improvise apparatus from such articles as are easily obtainable in the average retail store.

Text-book: Caspari's Pharmacy, U. S. Pharmacopœia, and Remington's Pharmacy.

Senior Class—Four Hours Per Week.

The lectures of the Senior year will embrace the study of the inorganic and organic acids, and the salts of the different metallic bases. The commercial methods of preparations will be touched upon, and a special effort will be made to teach the student how to prepare them extemporaneously when necessity arises therefor. In addition to the official compounds, those unofficial ones, which, through frequency of use, merit it, will likewise be treated of.

This will be followed by a study of the alkaloids, the neutral principle of vegetable drugs and the essential oils.

Extemporaneous pharmacy will then be taken up, and will include a thorough discussion of dispensing. Facsimilies of physicians' prescriptions will, by means of the stereopticon, be thrown upon a screen, and the class drilled in reading those that are difficult to read. Chemical and pharmaceutical incompatibilities will be taught, and the best methods discussed for overcoming same.

Text-books: U. S. Pharmacopœia, Ruddiman's Incompatibilities in Prescriptions, and Beal's Prescription Practice.

Pharmaceutical manipulations as carried on in large manufacturing establishments will be given particular attention and illustrated by means of slides and other ways.

All the methods of assay discussed in the didactic lectures will be carried out by each student individually in the laboratory.

Pharmaceutical synthetics will be considered in detail as to the various modes of manufacture, points of identification and differentiation from those of similar composition, therapeutic property and doses, as well as chemical composition and incompatibilities will be taken up.

Pharmaceutical Laboratory.Junior Year—Six Hours Per Week.

Instruction will be given in the proper use of pharmaceutical apparatus. Determinations in specific gravity and specific volume will be made by each member of the class. This will be followed by a course in the manufacture of the galenical preparations, each student being required to make one or more of each class.

A short course in dispensing pharmacy will be given students of this class. They will receive a drilling in prescription work, comprising ointments, powders, elixirs, emulsions, etc.

Senior Year—Six Hours Per Week.

This will consist of a course in the granulation and purification of commercial chemicals, to be followed by a course in the manufacture of the simpler chemical compounds in order to drill the students in their extemporaneous preparation. Volumetric analysis will then be taken up, the several volumetric solutions of the Pharmacopœia will be prepared, and, in turn, these will be applied to the titration of official preparations and chemicals; in addition to which alkaloidal assay work will be taught, including pharmacopœial and other methods.

The students of this class will receive a thorough course in dispensing pharmacy. Preparation work in general will be taken up, and incompatibilities will receive considerable attention. The pupil will prepare the incompatible preparations, whenever possible, so as to have their nature clearly defined.

Materia Medica and Pharmacology.

Senior Course—Three Hours Per Week.

This is recognized as the most difficult department of pharmacy. Every effort will be made to present the subject in the most practical and simple manner possible. The drugs will be considered from the standpoint of their physiological action as the best method for remembering them. The classification of drugs according to natural order (or families) will be taken up.

The past sessions have demonstrated the practical utility of teaching by charts in this department. A large chart has been prepared for every important drug, showing the principal points to be remembered in connection with each of them, viz.: Official and English names, synonyms, part used, botanical name, family habitat, chief constituents, official preparation and doses, physiological actions, and antidotes or antagonists in case of poisonous drugs.

Serums, bacterins and allied physiological products being now so extensively used, consideration will be given them so as to make the pharmacist thoroughly familiar with them.

Text-book: Culbreth's Materia Medica.

Pharmacognosy.

Senior Course—Two Hours Per Week.

Closely allied with the study of Materia Medica is the branch of Pharmacognosy. This is of increasing importance each year on account of the National and State pure food and drug laws. The necessity for pure drugs, both in their natural state and in powdered form, is paramount. The work in Pharmacognosy is largely practical.

This course will consist from the very beginning of the microscopic consideration of the drug, describing its size, color, etc., cross-sections, thus enabling the student at one time to become familiar with the internal and external appearance of a drug, at the same time considering its internal structure, thus making it easier to thoroughly know the drug. Each student will be given a specimen of practically every official drug for home study, and is expected to identify them in quizz class, as well as to have a complete collection of same at each examination. Powdered drugs will also be examined and measurements taken of the various constituent cells. The compound microscope is of great aid in recognizing the powdered drug and its adulteration, and each student will receive practical instruction in its manipulation. Each student will be required to make individual cross-sections of drugs, clearing and staining them. These sections may be taken by the pupil for future use after leaving the College. A standard collection of cross-sections will be shown for his guidance.

Text-book: Kraemer's Botany and Pharmacognosy (3rd Ed.).

Botany.

Junior Course—Three Hours Per Week.

As most of the drugs are plant-parts or plant products, a study of botany is essential.

The work in this part is didactic, practical, and by means of quizzes. The didactic lectures will be illustrated by charts, diagrams and papier-maché models. As each part of the plant is taken up in turn, special reference will be made to those official drugs derived from each part and such specimens exhibited.

Specially-prepared glass-covered cases containing each official drug properly labeled, and arranged according to part of plant from which obtained, will be on constant exhibition throughout the session. This will aid the Junior students in familiarizing themselves with the names and general appearance of the official drugs.

On account of the warmth of our Southern climate with its almost perennial abundance of flowers, practical demonstrations of the growing plants will be made. The use of the microscope in the analysis of plants and in the study of their general structure occupies a prominent part of this branch.

Each student will be provided with his or her own microscope, and is required to make individual analyses of plants.

Quizzes, as formerly, will occupy a considerable portion of the time spent in this study.

The course will be divided into three parts. The first part will be devoted to the didactic side; the second to practical work in the laboratory, and field excursions to enable the student to study the plant in situ. The latter part will consist of the beginning of Materia Medica, as far as the remaining time will permit.

Text-book: Bergen's Botany and Flora (Southern Edition).

Physiology.

Junior Course—Two Hours Per Week.

This course will embrace the study of the structures of the human body; also laboratory work demonstrating the physiological effects of the normal secretions.

The course will include lectures and demonstrations of gross qualitative urinalysis, as well as microscopical and other considerations of blood, and the other normal constituents of the human body.

The laboratory work in this subject will be such as will be comprehensible to the Junior student, leaving the more detailed work to be taken up in the Senior Course.

Text-book: Jones & Bunce's Outlines of Physiology.

Bacteriology.

Ph. G. Course—Two Hours Per Week.

The work under this branch will consist of both the theoretical and practical consideration of the subject. The laboratory work will include all matter for which one following pharmaceutical chemistry may be called upon. The morphology of bacteria will be taken up in detail and in the laboratory each student will be instructed in staining, plating, agglutination tests and such other matter included in the practical work of this subject.

The laboratory is completely equipped with all the necessary appliances to make the course thorough.

Text-books: To be announced later.

Commercial Pharmacy.

Senior Course—One Hour Per Week.

During the past few years important changes have been made in the calling of Pharmacy, necessitating a better knowledge of the commercial side.

To meet this growing demand, the College has added this course, with the view of teaching its students such matters as relate to the proper conduct of the business, touching upon every detail of the subject as far as the allotted time will permit.

Text-book: O'Connor's Commercial Pharmacy.

Mathematics.

Junior Course—One Hour Per Week.

This course will consist first, of a review of Arithmetic in order to insure the student's proficiency in the use of fractions, decimals and elementary algebra, and an acquaintance with the principles of alligation. Mensuration, in so far as it pertains to the determination of the capacity of vessels, will be considered and then the Arithmetic of Chemistry and Pharmacy will be taken up in conjunction with the home work in these subjects.

Pharmaceutical Jurisprudence.

This course covers all the legal phases of Pharmacy, as the liability of the proprietor and clerks, the sale of prohibited drugs, etc. The Narcotic Law and various laws of Pharmacy are fully explained and discussed.

Quizzes.

The lectures will be supplemented by quizzes, to be conducted by the Professors or their assistants.

To Prospective Students in Medicine.

It is a matter of common observation in medical colleges that students who come to them after having completed the course in a college of pharmacy derive the most benefit from the instruction, obtain the highest honors in their classes and prove to be the most successful afterwards in practice. Anyone who properly appreciates the duties and responsibilities which belong to the practice of medicine acknowledges compensation for the outlay in time and money spent in such a superior preparatory course.

Museum.

Pharmacists of the State and vicinity are requested to send us curios, such as old books, apparatus or other materials which will be of pharmaceutical interest.

All such contributions will be prominently displayed and labeled with the names of the donors.

Employment.

The course of lectures has been so arranged as to permit those who desire it to devote a portion of their time to employment.

The Dean will keep a register of students seeking such employment and will give every assistance possible in procuring it.

Applicants desiring to be placed in positions are requested to write to the Dean full particulars concerning themselves as to age, experience, by whom they had been employed, and references.

Pharmacists desiring help are requested to communicate with the Dean.

Those desiring positions must bear in mind that, as half of the time is spent at college, they cannot expect to receive much compensation, and that the time they are employed in the stores will be occupied with their employer's duties, so that there is little time left for study. We will endeavor, however, to place all desiring positions. We make no promise to secure positions for all who apply, and past experience has demonstrated that the student can better succeed by coming here and making application in person.

The demand for competent and reliable drug clerks throughout the South is altogether unprecedented. Registered men are offered lucrative positions and still they cannot be found. The demand for our graduates has always been greater than the supply. Our graduates this year have positions awaiting them for over three months. In Louisiana, as it is in all other states, the law requires a man to be registered, and in order for him to become registered he must go before the Board of Pharmaceutical Examiners and pass the examination. This he cannot do unless he is a graduate from a first-class practical school of pharmacy. The drug store training of today is wholly inadequate to prepare the prospective pharmacist for board examinations. Board of Pharmacy examinations necessarily include Chemistry, Pharmacy, and Materia Medica. These subjects are not taught in the drug store, nor is the clerk given any time for study there. Moreover, the task of acquiring a sufficient knowledge of them is hopeless without due system, good teachers, and above all, abundant laboratory practice.

The College of Pharmacy Loyola University has sent out into the field something over three hundred and fifty graduates, and they are now scattered in every part of this country. Our best asset is the record made by these former students. They never fail to pass any State Board Examination and they are today filling some of the responsible positions in the drug world, while many are in business on their own account.

Correspondence.

Letters of inquiry will receive careful and prompt attention.
